General W. Bedell Smith
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Bedell:

On 29 August 1951 I had the pleasure of listening to an address by Mr. [redacted] of your shop, given to the students here at our CIC school.

I found the talk to be most illuminating and instructive. At the same time [redacted] created a most favorable impression, not only from the viewpoint of his subject matter, but in his platform presence as well.

I feel that [redacted] is a most worthy representative of your organization, and I wish to thank you for your courtesy in permitting him to be with us here at Fort Holabird.

Kindest regards and best wishes,

Most sincerely,
